

"Our New Baby brother
by
David Dalton & Chad Schnackel

Pages: 2

Characters: 1 boy, teen girl

Mitch, 8-10

Tracy, 14-16

Synopsis: Siblings, Mitch and Tracy are getting acquainted with their new baby brother. Each let the little guy what know they expect from him.

Permission: This script may be used for educational purposes only and may be produced, filmed and videotaped as long as writers and www.mockside.com is listed on title credits.

Mock Sides, Volume 1: Original Scripts for Workshop Actors

INT. BABY'S ROOM - NIGHT

BABY'S P.O.V.

We see Tracy looking down at her new little brother, Jason. Tracy is finishing a diaper change. We hear subtle noises of little Jason as he looks up. Tracy's younger brother, Mitch, enters the frame.

MITCH
Why was he crying?

TRACY
He just needs his diaper changed.
(to Jason)
There now. That's much better, huh
...huh? You're so cute.

MITCH
(also to Jason)
How ya doing little brother? Doesn't she look scary?

TRACY
(to Mitch)
Shut up, dork.
(to Jason)
Don't pay any attention to him. No one ever does. I'm going to see if there's a bottle for you.
(to Mitch)
Don't touch him. Your dorkiness might rub off on him.

Tracy leaves the frame. Mitch waits until she's out of the room.

MITCH
(to Jason)
Don't mind her, she's only being nice cause your small and defenseless, but when you get older, she's going to make your life a living nightmare.
(beat)
I got to tell you something, I'm so glad you're a boy. Having a little brother means the playing field has finally been leveled. As soon as you're big enough,
I'll show you how to defend yourself
against a surprise attack from the terror
they call Tracy.
(pause)
Here she comes. Remember, you and me are a team, right? Yeah, that's right.

(CONTINUED)

Mock Sides, Volume 1: Original Scripts for Workshop Actors

Tracy enters the frame with a baby bottle.

TRACY

Hey there, Jason. Look what I got for you.

She reaches down and offers the bottle, but apparently the baby reject it.

TRACY

What? Not hungry? That's okay. You just let me know.

Tracy hands the bottle back to Mitch.

TRACY

Here, take that back down to Mom.

Mitch exits the frame and the room. Tracy pauses until Mitch leaves the room.

TRACY

(to Jason)

Hey there little brother. Don't believe a word your big brother says. I'm going to take good care of you. I'm going to show you how things work around here.

She picks up a baby monitor and shows it to the baby.

TRACY

See this. This is a baby monitor. It's just a simple 5.8 GHz wireless intercom. It let's me hear everything that's being said. What your big brother doesn't know, is that I have another one hidden under his bed. And see that cute little teddy bear up there? That's a Nanny-Cam, so Mom and Dad can see what's going on in here at all times. I designed it ...and I put a few more all over the house. Shhh...

(beat)

You see, I'm the smart one in the family. I'm going to go to MIT and get my degree in communication technology, then I'm going to join the FBI. And, if you're smart like me, I'll show you how to make a GPS tracking device that can be ingested. And, if you're not as smart as me, well, you have Mitch.

FADE OUT.